

Digging deeper (Continued).

2. Read Ecclesiastes 4:9-12 aloud three times from three different people. Then answer the following questions.
 - a. What does this text tell us about God? Others? You?
 - b. What tangible steps do you feel need to happen for this group to become this "threefold cord that is not easily broken"?

Personal reflection and application.

1. Go around the group and have everyone share one thing that stood out to them from the discussion.
2. Break up into smaller groups and pray for one another (preferably men with men and women with women).

Getting to know you.

1. Share your name, something about yourself, and when/how you started coming to City Church.
2. If you could go anywhere in the world for 10 days where would you go and why?

Take a moment right now to read over the Small Group "Top 10" as a group.

What do you think?

Looking back at your notes from Sunday's message, what particular point, verse or comment caught your attention, challenged you or raised a question?

The story of your life.

Tell about a time in life when you felt closely connected to Christian community or experienced the power of the church supporting you.

Digging deeper.

1. On Sunday, Pastor Kyle read from Hebrews 10:19-25. As a group, read it aloud three times (a different person reading it each time). Then answer the following questions.
 - a. What does this text tell us about God? Others? You?
 - b. In light of this, what do you sense God wants for you (and from you) during this session of small groups?
