

Digging deeper (Continued).

2. Another thing we looked at on Sunday was practicing reflecting the truth and grace of Jesus rather than pointing out where others don't measure up. One great example of the Lord doing this very thing to another human being is found in John 4:1-43 (the famous story of the woman at the well). Read it together and answer the following questions.

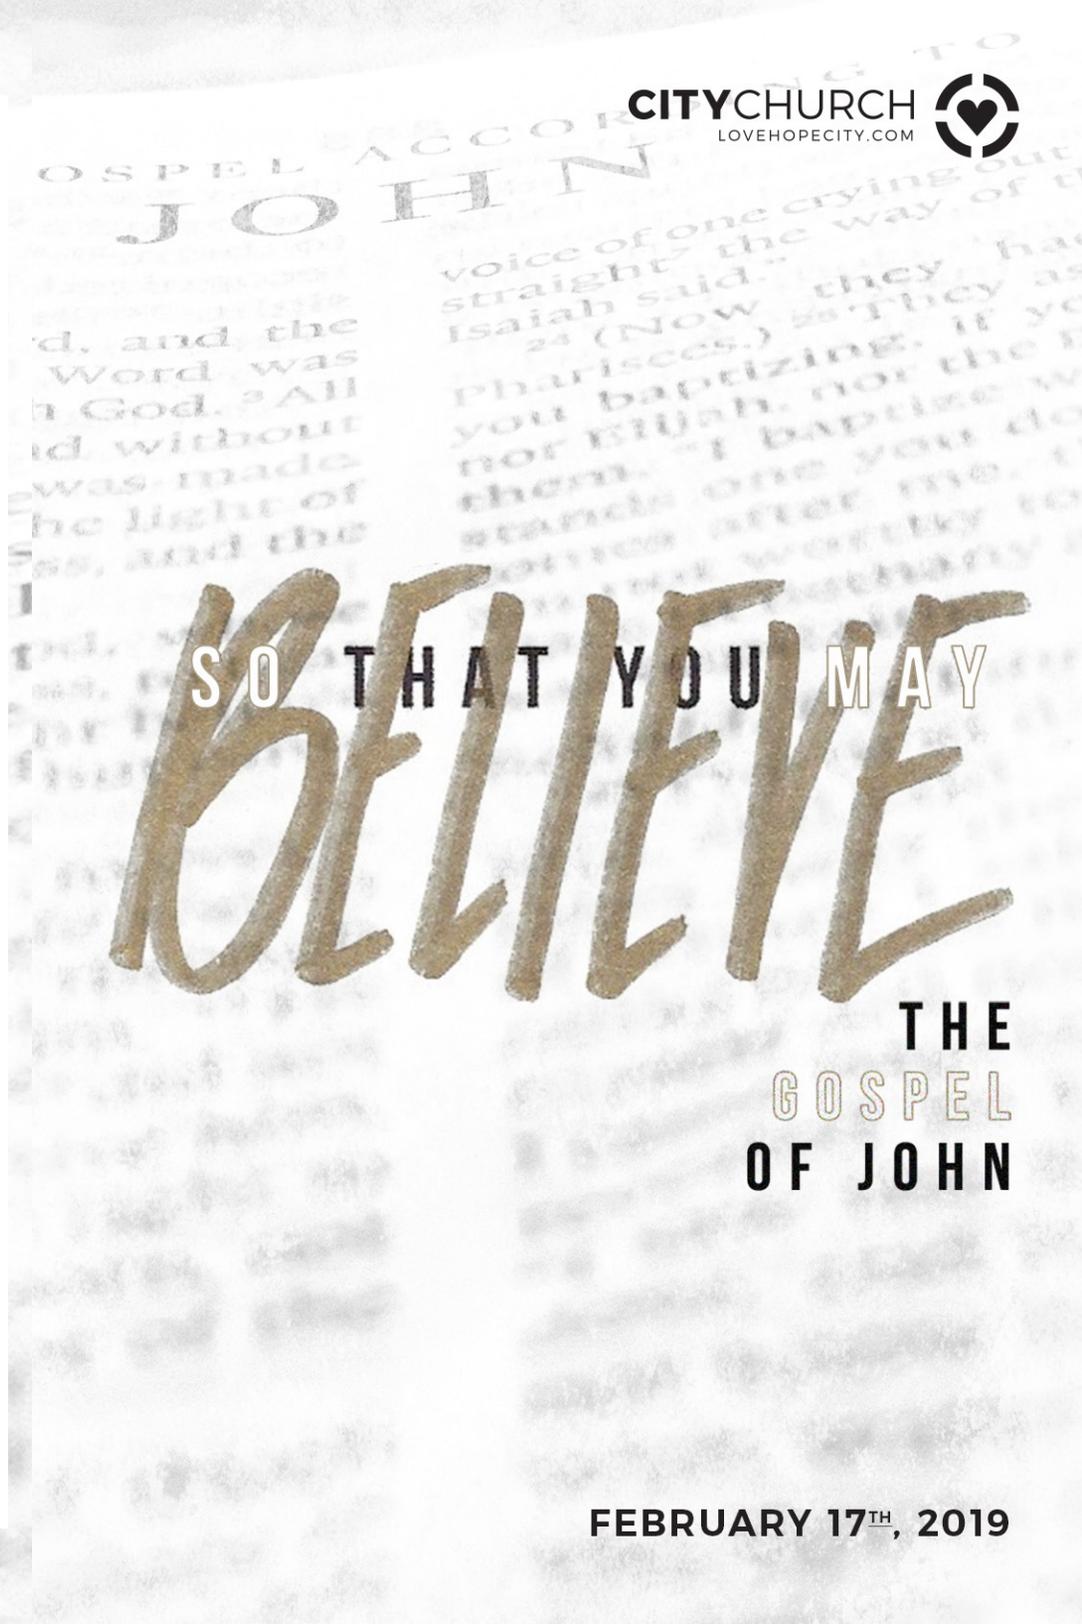

- a. What about this story surprises you?
- b. What does it tell us about God? People? You?
- c. In light of this, is there anything different that you need to do?

3. Another example set forth in John about giving people grace is the story of the woman caught in the act of adultery. Read John 7:53-8:11 and answer the following questions.

- a. What about this story surprises you?
- b. What does it tell us about God? People? You?
- c. In light of this, is there anything different that you need to do?

Personal reflection and application.

- 1. Go around the group and have everyone share one thing that stood out to them from the discussion.
- 2. Break up into smaller groups and pray for one another (preferably men with men and women with women).

What do you think?

From Sunday's message, which particular "spiritual life hack" (or other point) challenged you, caught your attention, raised a question for you, or got you to think?

The story of your life.

1. There are people who exude grace and there are others who make us feel like we will never measure up. Tell about a time when someone could have (and possibly should have) judged you or pointed out a flaw in your life at the time... but didn't. How did it make you feel?
2. Have one person share their testimony in 5-7 minutes (and another person sign up to do it next week).

Digging deeper.

1. One of the things we looked at on Sunday was the importance of reminding ourselves of what we already have in Christ in order to find hope in this dark world. What insights do the following passages provide into what every Christian already possesses?
  - a. Ephesians 1:3-14.
  - b. Hebrews 4:14-16.
  - c. Hebrews 10:19-22.
