

Digging deeper (Continued).

2. On Sunday Pastor Kyle talked about every Christian's responsibility to live for their higher calling, the Gospel. 2nd Corinthians 4 offers a lot of insight into what the gospel is and what God desires of us as a result. Read the whole chapter out loud as a group.
 - a. Write down/share as many things as possible that God did for us through Christ that are listed in this passage.
 - b. Write down and share as many things as possible that God desires for us that are listed in this passage.
 - c. Which parts of this section of Scripture (if any) surprise you?
 - d. Which parts of this section of Scripture encourage you? Share why.

Personal reflection and application.

1. Have each member of the group go around the circle and share one thing that stood out to them from the discussion.
2. Break up into smaller groups and pray for one another (preferably men with men and women with women).

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

What do you think?

This past weekend we celebrated Good Friday and Easter Sunday at City Church. Which parts (from each service respectively) hit home for you?

The story of your life.

1. Over the course of your life, what pieces of evidence supporting the historicity of Jesus’ Resurrection have you found the most encouraging to your own faith (whether it comes from outside or inside of the Bible)?
2. While these types of facts are great and encouraging, every believer’s personal experience with God is arguably often more powerful. Share a personal story of a time in your life when God was at work.

Digging deeper.

1. One of the greatest passages in the Bible that unpacks the significance of the resurrection of Jesus for every believer’s life is 1st Corinthians 15. Though it’s a lengthy section of Scripture, read it together as a group and answer the following questions.
 - a. What does this passage tell us is the heart of the Gospel?
 - b. What do we learn about Jesus’ Resurrection from these verses?
 - c. What do we learn about the hope of resurrection for believers from this verse?
 - d. Which parts of this passage do you find the most encouraging for your own faith?
