

- a. Have a few members of the group share/recap these verses using their own words.
 - b. What particular verse(s) or section stood out to you? Explain.
 - c. If you have read this section of Scripture before, did anything stick out to you that you had never noticed before? Explain.
 - d. Tell about a time you suffered a physical injury and felt its impact on the rest of your body. What correlations can we draw about how a church body works?
 - e. Re-read verses 22-25. In what ways does this seem counterintuitive?
 - f. In light of all this, how do you sense the Lord speaking to you right now?
2. As we read through John 13:1-20 last Sunday, we saw Christ's example of washing His disciples' feet. The picture of God in human flesh washing His disciples' feet is so simple and profound at the same time. Another text that talks about Jesus' nature as a servant is Philippians 2:3-11. Read it together and answer the following questions.
- a. Have a few members of the group share/recap these verses using their own words.
 - b. Though our self-sacrificing works could never compare with the Lord's, what are some practical ways we can consider other people more important than ourselves?
 - c. In light of all this, how do you sense the Lord speaking to you right now?

Personal reflection and application.

1. Have everyone go around the circle and share one thing someone else said that stuck out to you.
2. Break up into smaller groups (preferably men with men and women with women) and pray for one another.

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS // WEEK ONE

Getting to know you.

1. Welcome to your first week of Small Groups! Take a moment to go around the circle and have everyone share their name, how they heard about/started coming to City Church, and something about themselves.
2. What is your real favorite movie and what movie do you pretend is your favorite movie to sound cultured?
3. What are you hoping to get out of this upcoming season of small groups?

Take a minute right now to go over
City Church's Small Group "Top 10."

What do you think?

1. What was your favorite part of the birthday bash?
2. From Sunday's message, what particular point or comment stood out to you, challenged you, raised a question for you, or got you to think?

The story of your life.

1. How has your perception of the importance of church changed over the years (positively or negatively – just be honest)?
2. In what ways have you sensed God challenging you with respect to the issue of church involvement?

Digging deeper.

1. Last Sunday, we saw the importance of loving the fellowship of believers – more specifically, the church. The Apostle Paul penned (arguably) the most beautiful illustration of the church in history by describing it as the body of Christ. Turn to 1st Corinthians 12:12-31. Read it together and answer the following questions.
