

2. The following verses all talk about how to keep running the race with Jesus. Read each verse individually and discuss what insights/strategies it offers into the Christian life.

a. Isaiah 41:13.

b. Romans 5:3-5, 12:12, 15:13.

c. 1st Corinthians 9:24-27.

d. 1st Corinthians 10:13-14.

e. James 1:2-3, 12-15.

Personal reflection and application.

1. Have everyone share one thing someone else said that stood out to them from this discussion.
2. Break up into smaller groups of 3-6 and pray for one another (preferably men with men and women with women).

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS || WEEK FIVE

What do you think?

From Sunday’s message, what particular point challenged you, raised a question for you, or got you to think?

The story of your life.

1. Tell about a significant race or sporting event in your life that you either won or lost. What did you learn from it?
2. One of the things Pastor Kyle emphasized at the end of the message was to keep running with Jesus when life throws you punches. How have you learned to continue to trust the Lord through life’s hardships?

Digging deeper.

1. Two of the Apostle Paul’s most well known metaphors are the Christian life as a race and walking in the Spirit. Both deal with continuing to move forward in faith. As a traveling preacher, Paul walked everywhere. This picture of walking with God is relatable to every single human being’s daily existence. Read Galatians 5:16-25 and answer the following questions.
 - a. What does this passage tell us that it looks like to walk with God?
 - b. How does it describe a life that is not in step with the Holy Spirit?
 - c. What does this passage tell us about God? People? You?
