

3. Every day we have the choice to look for life. One of the best passages in the Old Testament that discusses this is Deuteronomy 30:11-20. Read it together out loud and answer the following questions.

- a. What does this passage tell us about God/people/you?
- b. After reading and hearing everyone share, is there a specific way you need to look for life right now?

Personal reflection and application.

- 1. Have everyone share one thing someone else said that stood out to them from this discussion.
- 2. Take prayer requests. Try to take no more than 60 seconds per person to share since we will do it all together.

» Two questions to consider from Psalm 63:

#1 Are you _____ God right now?
| Proverbs 26:11 | Job 31:1 |

#2 Are you _____ God right now?
| Psalm 63:3-4 | Job 1:21 | Acts 20:24 |

» Two things that come as a result:

#1 We will feel _____ and _____.
| Psalm 63:5 |

#2 God will _____ us up.
| Psalm 63:6-8 |

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

What do you think?

From Sunday's message, what particular point challenged you, got you to think, or raised a question for you?

The story of your life.

Pastor Kyle's message was titled "Looking for life." How are you finding life during this time?

Digging deeper.

1. The primary text from the message Sunday was Psalm 63:1-8. Let's re-read it aloud again (if possible in a few different translations) and answer the following questions.
 - a. What does this passage tell us about God/people/you?
 - b. In light of this, is there anything you need to do differently right now.
2. All of us are dealing with varying levels of anxiety that we are repeatedly having to turn to the Lord. One of the most beautiful passages in Scripture on this topic from Jesus is found in Matthew 6:25-34. Read it in its entirety and answer the following questions.
 - a. As a group, describe what you think an average bird's daily life looks like. Really try to imagine every aspect possible.
 - b. Now that you have "put yourself in the bird's shoes," what parallels do you think Jesus was drawing about our lives that you might not have thought about before?
 - c. How did you sense the Lord speaking to you specifically through this passage?
