

- b. In light of this, how might you tangibly take actions to serve
2. One of the foremost passages about stewardship in all of the Bible is found in Matthew 25:14-40. Read it together and have a few group members recap the story using their own words.
 - a. What does this tell us about God/people/being a steward of Christ?
 - b. In light of this, how do you sense God asking you to be a better steward of the Gospel?
 3. What additional insights do the following verses offer into being a servant and steward of Christ?
 - a. Leviticus 25:23.
 - b. Psalm 50:10-12.
 - c. Haggai 2:8.
 - d. Luke 16:10.
 - e. 1 Corinthians 6:19-20.

Personal reflection and application.

1. Have everyone share one thing someone else said that stood out to them in this discussion.
2. Pray for one another.

“Servants, Stewards, and Spiritual Parents”
Pastor Kyle Bonenberger

Small Group Questions

» THE TEXT: 1 Corinthians 4:1-21

» 3 Surprisingly unsurprising truths God expects of every servant, steward, and spiritual parent.

- God _____ to find His stewards acting/managing _____.

- God expects His servants to be _____.

- God expects us to have _____ worth _____.

What do you think?

1. What do you think is the ideal Halloween night?
 - a. Pass out candy to cute kiddos from home.
 - b. Take cute kiddos out to trick-or-treat.
 - c. Turn off the porchlight, hide in a back room, and pray for the heathens.
2. What struck a chord with you from Sunday's service?

The story of your life.

1. On Sunday, we referenced 1 Corinthians 4:16 where Paul encouraged the Corinthian Christians to actually imitate his life in order to grow spiritually. Who is someone you have sought to emulate as a model of Christianity?
2. Do you think you could confidently ask someone to follow you as you follow Christ? Explain why or why not.

Digging deeper.

1. Another thing we read on Sunday is that every Christian is considered a servant of Christ and a steward of the “mysteries of God.” For today's discussion, we will focus on what it looks like to embody those two things. Read John 13:1-20 and have a few group members recap the story using their own words.
 - a. What does this tell us about God/people/being a servant of Christ?

CONTINUED ➔